Description

A mid-eighteenth century walnut bureau with a contrasting feather decoration to the fall and the sides, which are also cross-banded. The three long and three short drawers each have oak linings and are cock-beaded with later brass plate handles. The interior has a central cupboard, flanked by "secret" document drawers with applied columned fronts, and a further four drawers on each side, the outer ones being serpentine shaped, and all with brass knob handles. This very desirable bureau stands on later, but sympathetic bracket feet and has a lovely light honey coloured surface and wax finish. It is in excellent condition, and therefore unlikely to be with us for long. If you are interested in this item, it is wise to enquire straight away. Listed items are advertised elsewhere and are constantly being sold and withdrawn from the site. Dimensions: 37.25" width (95cm) 22" depth (56cm) 38.5" height (98cm)
