Description

1 Fine Scottish Work Of Art Antique Oil Painting Portrait William Muirhead of Messrs, Glasgow Iron & Steel Merchant By John McGhie. Half length front profile portrait of Mr William Muirhead of Messrs, William Muirhead (Limited) Mount Vernon Iron & Steel Works 1855-1923. He looks such an impressive distinguished gentlemen with his moustache & smart suit jacket with white shirt and tie. Circa early 20th century. Signed by the known listed Scottish artist John McGhie. Presented in a decorative silver & outer gilt frame with metal wire hanging thread verso. Oil on canvas. Works like this rare become available for public sale. William Muirhead was a highly respected in the world of industrial iron and steel industry. This is a signifiant portrait, as it was possible was done as a favour for the Muirhead family as few portraits exist by the artist John McGhie. Mr Muirhead spent his whole life in the industry and specialised in the chemical side, for his first important appointment being that of Chief Metallurgist with Messrs. William Beardmore and Co. Parkhead. He was largely instrumental in laying down and starting the works of the Lanarkshire Steel Company at Flemington and ...
