Description

Antique Belgian Mahogany Chiffonier Serving Sideboard We are delighted to bring to you this very rare example of an early (circa 1830) chiffonier serving sideboard which originates from Belgium and is in superb original condition. The sideboard features its original ornate shaped skilfully carved acanthus leaf back which makes a bold statement in any room (can be removed via 4 screws if necessary). This heavy sideboard is made from all solid Mahogany with the top being a single slab of Mahogany with no joints or splits. To the underside of the top are 2 striking drawers with deep moulded edges which beautifully frames the most ornate carved and shaped Mahogany handles. The fantastic quality drawers are lined in European Ash with a dovetailed construction, are clean inside and operate smoothly. Also making a statement are a pair of ornately carved barley twists which pivot from the top and the bottom and form the hinges to the cupboard doors. The cupboard doors feature applied relief carvings of the highest competence with a beautifully shaped slam strip between. The left door latches at the bottom and the right locks via its original brass lock with key and keyhole e...
