Description

A scarce set of mid 19th Century, larger than usual silver teaspoons. These lovely examples are in fiddle pattern, with rat-tails to the reverse of the bowls. This style rarely seen outside Irish silver, adds to the desirability from a Collector's point of view. There are no engraved monograms or initials and the spoons were Assayed at the sought after Exeter Office. Flatware is rather scarce nowadays due to the great losses, caused by the unscrupulous melting of antique silver for scrap. Therefore a matching set of six, in a sought after pattern is a rare find. The larger dimensions add to their versatility for table use. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £8.00 UK £16.00 Europe £24.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no splits or dents. The bowl tips are good. Hallmarks :- Clear, readable and matching. Date :- Exeter 1856. Maker :- James & Josiah Williams. Length :- 15.2 cms. Bowl width :- 3 cms. (widest point). Weight :- 135 grams.
