Description

This is what we call desk eye candy! For those who desire something of the highest quality and design and that oozes kerb appeal then look no further! This fabulous Art Deco desk dates to the 1930's and comprises three pieces. A large stand which holds letters and has three tiered slots, the second stand holds two inkwells and a pen rest and the last piece is the blotter. Dark Walnut veneered wood adorned with chunky chrome half circle tiered accents gives this set a real modernist feel to it. All in good condition with just minor signs of age.
