Description

A rare piece of American Art Deco silver, a small desk-top letter rack made from solid sterling silver by the Thomae Company of Attleboro, Massachusetts made in the 1930's. The quality is evident, a lovely screwed construction, which can be seen from the underside, and a good heavy weight, 9.52 Troy Ounces / 296.1 Grams. The underside is fully marked "Sterling" and the maker's mark for the Thomae Company. The front is decorated with a stunning pink guilloche enamel, without damage. Excellent condition measuring 4 3/4" x 1 5/8" x 4 1/2" tall at rear. Item: 44156 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From the UK
