Description

A truly wonderful Large Oak Farmhouse Refectory Dining Table. This table possibly has more Oak in it than any i have sold or seen before ! The top is an incredible 10cm thick and weighs a tonne. It has a double bar support along the bottom which I have never seen and each leg is barely liftable by one man !!! A truly monumental table that luckily completely comes apart for access into the home. French in origin and dating to the early 1900s and of extremely good quality craftsmanship this table will be around for centuries to come. I love the character in the top and the original faded colour and patina. This table is a one off and in excellent original condition for the home. Length 250 cm Depth 90 cm Height 76 cm End overhang 26.5 cm Top Thickness 10 cm
