Description

A beautiful Art Deco solid sterling silver gilt and enamel cigarette case. It is hallmarked with import marks for London 1926 with the makers marks being KA&Co. It has been beautifully made having an enamel front and engine turned back, the hinge is sprung so it flips open automatically when the button is pressed. It is in very good condition being free from dings splits and repairs, the odd faint mark to the back. The enamel is complete and free from chips and cracks, there are light scratches if you turn it to the light. It measures over 3 inches (8cms) long by 2 inches (5cms) wide and weighs 76 grams. A beautifully designed piece.
