Description

A beautiful large signed oil on canvas by this important American impressionist painter Frank Myers Boggs. This large signed canvas depicts a view of figures unloading boats on a quayside. The work is signed lower left and in superb original condition on its original frame. A stunning work in excellent condition. Title: "Unloading the Fishing Boats" Signature: Signed lower left Medium: Oil on original canvas Provenance: Private French collection Size: c15 x 22 inches unframed / 23 x 30 inches framed Condition: Very good original condition Frank-Boggs was a pupil of Jean-Léon Gérôme at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris. His generally small drawings are spontaneous and lively, while his many watercolours, which form an important part of his work, are highly nuanced. A lover of Paris, he painted its many views - quays, buildings and the banks of the Seine - as well as French and foreign ports, the lively markets of small towns in La Rochelle, the Netherlands, Belgium and Venice, in pictures with an identifiable style that were attractive to the public. Between 1906 and 1907, he also made etchings. Frank-Boggs exhibited until the end of his life at the Salon des Artistes Fr...
