Description

A lovely example of a small Victorian nursing chair dating from the mid to late 19th Century. It has a nice shape with an exposed frame and buttoned detailing. It stands on carved cabriole front legs with ceramic castors. The chair has been recently upholstered in a good quality, stylish green fabric with matching piping that compliments the chair. The chair is in good overall condition and is strong and sturdy. There are a few very minor marks on the upholstery but nothing detrimental. There are signs of historic worm in the front legs which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the chair structurally or aesthetically. One carved scroll is missing from one front leg (see photo). Approximate Measurements : Height : 37" / 94cm Width : 24" / 61cm Depth : 28" / 71cm Seat Height : 14" / 36cm Seat Depth : 18" / 46cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
