Description

Superb early 19th.c. French Empire marble top centre table or gueridon c.1830. 38" diameter top in dark grey marble (note the tiny fossils embedded within), the edge moulded with a border of concentric rings designed to stop spilt liquids from running over the sides. Slim mahogany veneered apron on oak groundwork. Reeded urn shaped pedestal with a turned base raised on three good Empire style legs carved with acanthus leaves and large paw feet with wooden wheel castors below. Some scratches to the marble and old damage to the apron. Otherwise excellent colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: Height 28½" Diameter 38".
