Description

A pair of finely detailed bronze candlesticks with three arms and four candle cups, dating from around 1890-1900. An eagle's head forms the shape of the feet with leaves and branches underneath. The arms are decorated with flowers and leaves, and under each candle cup is a lion's head. See photo 8. They are in good condition. We lightened the main photo to show the quality of the casting. They measure 33cm in height, 16cm between feet, and approximately 24cm width between each arm. Each one weighs approximately 1.4kgs. Postage & packing is included for the UK mainland only and for outside areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
