Description

For those with a more refined taste in quality we are pleased to be able to offer you this Sycamore Art Deco illuminated dressing table with it's original matching stool. The dressing mirror is full length, bevelled and features an opaque illuminated light at the arch of the mirror. Condition of the mirror is very good with just some very minor silver loss to one edge, no chips or scratches it's been loved and looked after very well. The mirror sits between to curved pedestals which not only offer a generous amount of storage each having four deep drawers but look absolutely stunning with their tiger grain sycamore blonde veneers which are accentuated and contrasted beautifully with the ebonized handles and plinths. If all that wasn't enough it comes with it's original matching stool which offers further storage with a lift up lid. Again veneered in beautiful tiger grain sycamore veneers with ebonised accents to handles and plinth. The stool has it's original casters which are made of brass and black ceramic porcelain and work very smoothly. All fully professionally restored by our team of restorers who made good on a previously very bad restoration job, and so now come...
