Description

A rare late Victorian / Edwardian tantalus with a stunning cast silver plated handle in the form of a greyhound. The frame is made from solid English Oak and the decorative fittings are silver plated. The interior retains the three original cut glass decanters, all in great, undamaged condition. It comes with a working key which unlocks at the front and the front panel falls to allow the decanters to be removed. The handsome greyhound is beautifully executed with stunning detail. Excellent condition the frame measures 14 1/2" x 5 1/2" x 17" tall to top of dog figure. Item: 44170 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From the UK
