Description

A rare sized early 18th century mahogany bureau. This is a wonderful piece. Dating from around 1740 it is made from the finest Cuban mahogany and all the drawers are oak lined. Inside the fall there are 6 small drawers (the bottom on the right being fitted for inkwells). This has been through our workshop and is completely ready for the home. These pieces are ideal as laptops can be stored in them and the drawers offer plenty of additional storage. It has the original lock and working key!! This is a particularly good piece because of it's age and neat size. The height to the working surface is 76cm
