Description

Early 20th century mahogany windup gramophone by His Masters Voice. The cabinet has been re-finished to take out any marks to the polish and the movement has been serviced. The model number is 162 and it plays really well. The top doors open to increase the sound, whilst the bottom gives storage for your records. Very sturdy and ready for years of fun and entertainment. We will supply some new needles and a few records to set you off.
