Description

Antique Zenith pocket watch and chain. The watch has a nicely jewelled stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed with the Zenith name and the serial number 1406767 which dates it back to 1913. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover which is engraved, 'Grand Prix Paris 1900' which relates to trade medals won at the Paris Expo in 1900. There are some scratches to this inner cover where it has been prised open in the past. The watch measures 51mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is marked as being white metal, probably nickel. It is in lovely condition with just light surface marking and a small "ding" to the back. The inside of the outer case back has the Zenith logo. The glass lens is in nice condition. The signed dial has sustained some damage between 10 and 11, and some hairline cracks to the outer edge but otherwise is in good condition with Breguet style hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute markers. The watch comes with a single chain, 39cm long including the T-bar and the clasp. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
