Description

Antique French Mahogany Console Table Louis Philippe This impressive console table features a variegated black, white and grey Brèche marble top with a moulded outer edge. Below this is full-width drawer concealed within the frieze. The drawer has dovetail construction and moulded beading to the lower edge. Flanking each side are curved side supports leading down to beautifully carved lions with claw feet. The inner curved lower apron / plinth is veneered with stunning flame mahogany, which also covers the drawer and sides. Below the drawer is the original mirror plate with age-related foxing. Overall this piece is in excellent condition after passing through our workshop where it has been checked over, cleaned and re-waxed.
