Description

A very good mirror of elegant Gothic form - of very large proportions and in lovely original condition. . The tall pediment centred with pierced carved quatrefoil and surrounded by carved oak leaves. The mirror plate flanked by tall Corinthian columns over a slightly breakfront plinth. The plate appears original with very thick glass (about half an inch) which reflects perfectly and has a most attractive and atmospheric soft grey/blue hue. The plate excellent order with no noticeable faults or degradation. The frame with minor dings and scuffs to the gilding and a few old nail holes on the back of the frame from previous backboards. Original blocks throughout which hold the plate in place. . Two large brass brackets are attached to the rear of the frame for hanging or fixing to a wall if placed on a mantle. These brackets could be used to run copper wire between for hanging but the mirror is heavy and we would strongly recommend fitting screwed wall fixings if hanging the mirror. . A very handsome and large Victorian mirror of a rarely found Gothic revival design, in the Arts and Crafts manner and of ecclesiastical form. . . Dimensions are: . 45 inches high, 39 inches wi...
