Description

Here we have a stunning rare Victorian Windsor armchair c1850. As you can see the chair has great colour and patina. This likely Thames Valley chair has most certainly been commissioned and could well be a one off. There is a broad top rail and wonderful tapered ring turned spindles to the back. The side supports have beautiful turned tops and lead to well shaped arms and fantastic turned arm supports. The seat is a stunning single piece of Elm with super colour and grain with a scribed edge and saddle shape. The legs are also well turned and are joined by an H stretcher. A super period chair in excellent retail condition ready for your home or collection. The dimensions are approx 86 cm high 54 cm wide 42 cm deep.
