Description

A very interesting painting depicting Saint Raymond Nonnatus which I believe to be painted on vellum. The image is very finely painted, and sits at the centre of an elaborate stumpwork panel. It is embroidered extravagantly in gold and silver metal thread and other elements of Stumpwork, including woven metal. The frame appears to be original and the glass has been replaced. It is Spanish and would have hung in a church or monastery. SAINT RAYMOND NONNATUS Raymond is the patron saint of childbirth, midwives, children, pregnant women, and priests defending the confidentiality of confession. Raymond was born at Portella, Catalonia, Spain. He was delivered by caesarean operation when his mother died in childbirth. Hence his name non natus (not born). He later became a Catalan Dominican Friar. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for in terminational delivery. Payment by bank transfer or PayPal
