SoldItem Reference: SA94727*Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

An exquisite and very smart letter opener, as handsome as useful and ready to help with the daily mail. The handle is made from iridescent Mother of Pearl, carved into an elegant and tactile fluted design. The blade is where the English silver hallmark can be found for Birmingham 1874, together with the sought-after Queen Victoria's Head duty stamp. Excellent condition measuring 8" in length.
