Description

This charming mid-20th-century portrait by Belgian artist René Choprix (1888-1972) depicts a girl with a doll. It's a sensitive portrayal and it's probably his granddaughter. Choprix is primarily known for his work during the Art Deco period, stylish, angular, blocky figure compositions. But later in his career, his works became somewhat quieter. It's easy to imagine a doting grandfather producing this gentle image. Choprix studied at the Académie des Beaux-Arts, Brussels. Signed, dated, framed and glazed.
