Description

Technical Description A large and very impressive wine goblet made in Bohemia in around 1860. Flashed ruby red, it has a large round funnel bowl with enamelled decoration around the rim, base of bowl and foot. Very finely cut to clear to present a collection of animals and buildings in a forest scene. Very delicate work and I dont recall seeing another example. Large plain stem above a conical foot. Date & Origin Bohemia, c1860. Period of Victoria Condition No chips cracks or restoration, the internal bowl is a little cloudy but its doesnt detract from the glass and is quiet minor. Dimensions Height: 21.5cm, Rim: 11.3c, Foot 10.7cm

Internal Ref: 2022101109
