Description

Here is a fine quality English Victorian bookcase, with an open design, comprising two adjustable shelves and a two-door cupboard base, circa 1880, with a lovely original colour and patination, in excellent original condition. Incorporating a single plank mahogany moulded top, the Victorian bookcase is decorated with scribe moulded columns. The scribe decoration is also visible on the shelf fronts and two-door panels below. The open recess comprises two adjustable mahogany shelves, secured by the original wooden pegs, allowing the shelves to be moved up or down to adjust the height of each shelf. Below the open shelves are two fielded panel cupboard doors; ideal for storing paperwork or other objects. The left-hand door retains the original brass sliding bolt, and the right-hand door retains its original brass lever lock (with working key) and original external brass drop-ring handle. The Victorian mahogany bookcase stands on its original block moulded plinth. This Victorian bookshelf boasts its lovely mellow colour. The bookcase has been cleaned and French polished, by hand, to a professional standard in our workshop. Therefore, the colour and patination are o...
