Description

A fabulous early 18th century antique English carved oak coffer. This antique coffer has its original snipe hinges to the lid which opens to reveal a spacious interior. It has a paneled front and sides with decorative carved detail throughout. This is a beautiful example of a well constructed oak coffer. DIMENSIONS: Height – 25" Width – 56" Depth – 22" In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and fading. There is evidence of historic woodworm, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique oak coffer remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a great example of its kind. We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
