Description

This is large antique coopered umbrella stand. An English, oak and copper grand hallway stick rack, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Pleasingly substantial stand with internal drip tray, perfect for the larger entrance hall. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select oak staves tightly coopered and showing fine grain interest. Coopered in brightly polished amber coloured copper bands. Broad wooden rim adorned with four small decorative lobes. Tapering slightly along its form, the stand hosting an internal drip tray. Quality tin tray removable for clearing water accumulated within. Standing upon a stout circular foot for assured stability. This is a superb antique coopered umbrella stand, ideal for large umbrellas or a selection of canes and walking sticks in a reception hall. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home or institution.
