Description

1 Victorian Antique British Work of Art Oil Painting Exmoor Landscape by Arthur Wardle 1860-1949. Subject beautiful traditional landscape view of Exmoor, with sloping moor hills & expansive grassland with heather, mainly blue sky overhead with a few clouds. Title "Exmoor". Exmoor is a unique place shaped by people and nature over thousands of years and is recognized as one of the UK's finest landscapes. Large areas of open moorland provide a sense of remoteness and tranquillity rare in southern Britain. Spectacular coastal views, deep wooded valleys, high sea cliffs and fast flowing streams all combine to form a rich and distinct mosaic. It is a landscape that has inspired poets writers and artists for hundreds of years and continues to inspire people today. Oil on canvas laid on board. Signed in the bottom corner by the known listed British artist Arthur Wardle. A fine rare example of his work particularly as this is a landscape. Set in a traditional gilt frame. Circa 1900 end of Victorian era early 20th century. Provenance label verso. Artist biography Arthur Wardle (1860-1949) Born in London, aged just sixteen Wardle had a piece displayed at the Royal Academy. His fi...
