Description

This superb pair of Hadley's Royal Worcester vases are of a bulbous form with an unusual tall and slender neck which flares at the top and is finished with a delicate gilt rim. The vases are rich and luxurious in their palette of colours. The varied ground ranges from a pale creamy green to a rich moss green which is then hand painted with beautiful detail with stems of light to dark pink roses together with their delicate leaves and rose buds. Each vase is in perfect condition with no restoration and they are fine examples and a true pair with left- and right-handed decoration and each signed by the highly acclaimed Worcester factory flower artist, Harry Martin and dated 1907. Height 21.5 cm x width 10 cm x depth 10 cm
