Description

This truly stunning antique Georgian 18ct gold cabochon garnet & diamond ring is an absolute rarity. The workmanship is superb, the garnet being traditionally set in silver upon an 18ct gold mount with a foiled reverse. The craftsmanship involved in cutting the garnet into its exquisite curved cabochon is second to none. The garnet is surrounded by all original old mine cut diamonds, resulting in a fascinating, stylish and elegant ring. A part of our antique garnet ring collection. SIZE UK 1 ½ / US 4 ½ Free sizing available SPECIFICATION Garnet Dimensions. 20 x 10.5mm Diamond approx. carat weight. 0.50 carat Ring face dimensions. 25 x 15.5mm Weight. 5.6 grams 18k gold and silver ERA Late Georgian / Regency (1800 – 1836) CONDITION Excellent – This antique Georgian 18ct gold cabochon garnet & diamond ring is in superb condition. The garnet has hardly a mark to it and is in top form. The diamonds are free from abrasions or chips, omitting a wonderful shine. The gold and silver metalwork is also in great order and retains its original gleam. The ring head is late Georgian and was originally likely a hair piece, the ring shank has been added afterwards.
