Description

A good quality antique burr walnut bedside cabinet with drawer dating from circa 1920s. It has a single door cupboard with drop handle which opens to reveal a single shelf to the interior. There is a single frieze drawer with swan neck handle with cross banding and it stands on cabriole legs. In wonderfully figured walnut veneers it is a very stylish and versatile piece that would work equally well next to a desk or as lamp table as it would a bedside cabinet. Construction/Wood: Walnut veneers Condition Report: Good condition, solid and sturdy. Good patina. General wear and marks commensurate with age. Some small cracking to the veneers in places.
