Description

This is an antique hand-painted bijouterie table. A French, decorated pine and glass display cabinet, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Delightfully presented bijouterie display case, graced with brilliant colour. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Wonderful green painted pine case and legs adorned with bright gilt carvings. Circular glass pane to the opening lid free of marks and of bright appearance. Generously sized display area, dressed with a quality silk cotton lining. Colourful foliate garlands decorate the lid and fascia. Dressed with an inset working lock — key present. Artist's inscription inside lid reads 'Hand Painted, Maude Beale'. Prominent mounts to the knee with scrolled detail to each apron. Raised upon a quartet of slender tapering cabriole legs over pad feet. This is an attractive and versatile antique hand-painted bijouterie table, with inviting colour and a usefully sized display space. Solid joints and construction, delivered polished and ready for the home.
