Description

Pair of French 19th Century Gothic Oak Bedside Cupboards This is a rare pair of 19th Century Gothic Oak bedside cabinets. The cabinets have mottled grey marble tops which have a shaped raised edge to the front, each cabinet has a small drawer in the front and a marble based cupboard on the side. The fronts of the cabinets have a circular armorial design with linen fold carving to the corners and they have an under tier at the bottom. The cabinets are in good all round condition, one of the side doors has a handle and the the other has key and lock, the old marble tops seem to have a few repairs but they are sound and this must have been done many years ago. The cupboards stand 34" high, they are 16" deep and 15" wide TEB47
