

SA949774

Alec Fraser-Brunner (British,
1906-1986) 'Tuna'

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA949774

Date of manufacture: 1940

Dimensions

Height = 23 cm (9.1")

Width = 33 cm (13.0")

Description

Watercolour on buff paper, signed lower left (size including frame 34.5cm x 44.5cm) Lovely vibrant colours, framed and glazed. Alec Fraser-Brunner was a ichthyologist, author and artist. He designed Singapore's national symbol, the Merlion in 1964, which appeared on the country's postage and was sculpted by Lim Nang Seng in the early 1970s and stands in Merlion Park, Marina Bay, Singapore. Fraser-Brunner curated the Van Kleeef Aquarium in Singapore and the aquarium at Edinburgh Zoo. £240 including P&P to UK destinations

Seller Details

Jeckyll & Co

Edinburgh United Kingdom

Tel: 07735 072466

International Tel: +44 7735 072466

