Description

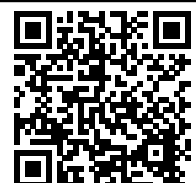

An attractive 19th century two stage antique Welsh oak pot board dresser. The antique Welsh oak dresser has a boarded rack back top, with three fitted shelves, retaining its original blacksmith iron hanging hooks. The antique oak dresser has a pot board base with three fitted drawers, each with circular wooden knobs. The pot board dresser has an under tier shelf raised on beautifully turned pillar supports and bracket feet. The Welsh oak pot board dresser has a wonderful colour throughout and separates into two parts for ease of transport. Item Ref; M-4433 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 223cm / Width – 177.5cm / Depth – 50cm / Surface Height - 86.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and stains to the surface top and shelves (pictured). There is slight warping to the surface top (pictured), also splits to the sides (pictured). There is age-related shrinkage to the pot board shelf and surface top (pictured), however this doesn't affect the overall integrity of the product.
