Description

A functional top quality display cabinet for a sophisticated interior! A lovely late 19th century inlaid mahogany drop centre mirror back cabinet. The cabinet is decorated with a profusion of fretwork detail and floral inlaid decoration. The two glazed doors open to plush lined shelves and provide a safe display area for the most converted of antique porcelain. The cabinet has a central cupboard, a base shelf and is supported on tapering legs with spade feet. This is a piece that was made at the very height of British cabinetmaking and represents a quality of construction that is seldom seen for sale. Please see the other items we have listed for sale.
