Description

A fine quality late Victorian inlaid mahogany and satinwood display cabinet by Maple and Co of London. Of excellent construction in solid mahogany with a satinwood freeze decorated with inlaid floral detailing. With a central glazed door flanked by a pair of cupboard doors (all lockable, key supplied). Surmounted by an elaborate up-stand and with an under-tier uniting the legs. Further embellished with stunning solid brass strap work hinges. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops to a very high standard and now offered for sale in excellent condition. Dimensions: Width 149cms Depth 43cms Height 200cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A timber importer and furniture exporter, they landed prestigi...
