Description

A wonderful early 18thc Oak Lambing Chair from the Lancashire area...it has shaped arms and wings, a top rail with original round finials and a large central moulded back panel which is also repeated on the sides and the front. It stands on the original feet and has a rope seat.... the chair has gained an excellent colour and patina through years of use and loving care....a fine example of these desirable chairs. English. C1730-40.
