Description

This is a large stylish Art Deco bronze figural sculpture of an archer, by the renowned German sculptor Otto H Riese 1851-1910 and Circa 1900 in date. The archer is shown standing while stringing his bow, the bronze is signed and mounted on a Siena and black marble base. This high quality hot cast solid bronze was produced using the traditional 'lost wax' process. The attention to detail is absolutely fantastic and the sculpture is extremely life-like. Condition: In really excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation. In industrial uses, the modern process is called investment casting. An ancient practice, the process today varies from foundry to foundry, but the steps which are usually used in casting small bronze sculptures in a modern bronze foundry are generally quite standardised.
