Description

A late 19thc rosewood and brass line inlaid wall mounted crucifix c1880. The rosewood crucifix is adorned with a gilt metal finely detailed model of Jesus Christ on the cross. Above is the gilt metal placard INRI and below the initials ND, usually interpreted as Notre Dame. The modelling of the figure and other additions is exquisite and refined, especially the facial expression, clothing and foot of his cross. In excellent condition. A mounting ring is on the back.
