Description

An extremely large antique pine triple wardrobe (Circa: 1930's), East German, with 4 drawers below (each with white porcelain knobs). The main top section totally dismantles for delivery, the drawer section it sits is in one piece, and measures 23" high, 78" wide, and 26" deep. Please check access carefully. 3 main sections, the left and right are currently empty. As it is so tall: you might like us to fit a shelf or 2 near the top, and a hanging rail below the lower shelf? The middle section currently has 4 shelves on adjustable supports. If you're not happy with this configuration, just let us know what your requirements are. This was originally painted, at some point has been stripped and wax finished. The price shown is for the wardrobe in its current condition (I will make sure all drawers sliding smoothly, door locks working, all keys available, and all of the knobs are fitted to the drawers). I could strip the old wax off, and/or re-wax it if required. Please ask for details and price for any extra work like this required. You can watch the video on our website for more information, and to see the wardrobe in more detail. (Any appearance of lines on the wardrobe...
