Description

A superb example of a small mahogany lamp table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a rectangular top made from a single piece of mahogany and it stands on a turned column with triform base and bun feet. It is an excellent quality piece with rich timbers and attractive tulip design carving around the base. It is in excellent condition for its age and displays well. There are some minor signs of age and use, some small marks and knocks but nothing untoward or detrimental. It has been cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
