Description

A lovely Victorian farmhouse table dating from the mid to late 19th Century. It has a thick twin plank ash top and stands on bulbous turned legs. It has a drawer at both ends of the table and a wonderful colour and patina. It is a good size, big enough to seat 4 comfortably and has good leg clearance of 23" (59cm). There are signs of age and use and various marks in the top including an old circular repair (see photo) but it is in good condition and is strong and sturdy. There are some historic signs of worm which have all been treated as a precaution and haven't affected the table structurally or aesthetically. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
