Description

A lovely Regency period penwork Jewellery box. This is decorated with various flowers including amongst others, roses, cyclamen, and even a butterfly. The lid opens to reveal its original fitted tray which lifts out to reveal a generous storage compartment. The box has its original very decorative brass feet and brass ring handles to the sides. Both the exterior and interior show some wear to be expected on a box of this type and age, the interior has one small partition missing. Sizes: 10 ½ "(27cms) wide, 8"(20cms) deep, 5 ¾ (14cms) high. Date circa 1820.
