Description

This Good Quality Edwardian Inlaid Oval Mahogany Occasional Table would make a very stylish addition to any interior. Standing on shaped tapered inlaid legs terminating in a square brass cup castor. The shaped corner strengthening brackets and rim are also inlaid to add additional design detailing. The substantially sized inlaid lower shelf offers good display or storage space, as well as adding weight to the piece to aid stability. The crossbanded top, also featuring inlaid line decorations to the edge, has an intricately detailed marquetry centre motif to finish off this stunning table. Being of a decent size, making this table both usable along with being very finely detailed and is sure to make a statement wherever placed in the room. Presented in excellent restored condition with all inlays contrasting so sharply with the rich warm hue of the Mahogany.
