Description

This is a beautiful antique Chinese (Qing) botanical watercolour dating from the mid 19th Century. The well executed painting depicts insects and a butterfly surrounded by native flora. The watercolour is in strong gouache colours on pith and is presented in a neat wooded frame with a soft green mount. It is in good condition with only a couple of breaks to the pith bottom left and measures 18 cms by 26 cms. We currently have 8 similar paintings should you be interested in purchasing more than one. Please see our other listings. UK delivery is £15 (this can be combined for multiple purchases)
