Description

A lovely small oil painting on canvas dating from the mid 19th Century. It is well executed with lots of detail and depicts a fisherman on a riverbank. It is a typically English scene however the painting is not signed and we do not know the origin. It is framed in its original gilt frame with a lovely cushioned border and gilt slip. The painting is in good condition for its age. There are a few small surface marks and a small old repair but the colours are bright and vibrant and overall it displays very well. The gilding on the frame is clean and bright. There are a few small knocks and minor losses around the edges but nothing detrimental. The painting has been lightly cleaned and is ready to hang. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £15.
