Description

This is a pair of antique elephant bookends. A Botswanan, carved and ebonised ironwood decorative book rest, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Delightfully carved and tactile bookends, with a distinctive appeal. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Profusely carved with a textured finish throughout. Ebonised ironwood presents dark hues and bright tonality. Each elephant presents great character with fine shape to the trunk and ears. Faux book covers decorate the end rests. Dressed to the base with green protective baize. This is a charming pair of antique elephant bookends, with an enthusiastically carved finish. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to enjoy.
