Description

A worn mid-18th-century oil on canvas depicting an arrangement of fruit including cherries and grapes. The style has its roots in the Dutch golden age of painting but it's probably French or Flemish. Over time, the details of this painting have become harder to decipher but it remains a charming decorative piece. It's housed in a later frame. Medium: Oil on canvas Overall size: 19" x 24" / 49cm x 61cm Year of creation: c. 1750 Condition: Craquelure but the paint is stable. Canvas relined. Frame with some wear.
