Description

Very stylish late Regency recline armchair in rosewood and buttoned leather, circa 1830 and in lovely condition. With the armchair in its upright position it is very much a chair that one would sit in all evening, even more so if you were to recline it to the position required. The reclining pin is at the side of the seat cushion and the mechanism runs well. The leather has a great look to it, gently worn with age and has been fed and waxed to give it a wonderful mellow glow. Great chair to use daily, or to have as a free standing additional seating when required. Measuring: 45 inches or 114 cm high 23 inches or 58.5 cm wide 28 inches or 71 cm deep 16 1/2 inches or 42 cm seat height 19 inches or 48 cm internal seat width
